Dear Amos,

RE: INTERNSHIP CONTRACT

We are pleased to offer you an internship as an Oracle Functional Intern (Oracle domain) at Kobby Technologies Limited for a period of Three (3) months with effect from 1st July 2025.

Upon commencement, you shall be assigned a supervisor.

This will be an unpaid internship.

1. WORK SCHEDULE

While the company's normal office hours are between 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Monday – Friday, you may be required to work beyond such office working hours as necessary to successfully sustain the business. For any absences, you must communicate to your supervisor in advance.

2. PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT & STANDARDS

2.1. Intern Conduct and Work rules

To ensure orderly operations and provide the best possible work environment, Kobby Technologies Ltd expects interns to follow rules of conduct that will protect the interests and safety of all interns and the organization. It is not possible to list all the forms of behavior that are considered unacceptable in the workplace. The following are examples of infractions of rules of conduct that may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of internship:

- Theft or inappropriate removal or possession of Company property.
- Falsification of timekeeping records.
- Working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
- Possession, distribution, sale, transfer, or use of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace, while on duty or while operating employer-owned vehicles or equipment.
- Fighting, threatening violence or language profanity in the workplace.
- Disruptive activity in the workplace.

- Negligence or improper conduct leading to damage of Company-owned or Client-owned property.
- Insubordination or other disrespectful conduct.
- Violation of safety or health rules.
- Smoking in the office.
- Sexual or other unlawful or unwelcome harassment.
- Possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials, such as explosives or firearms, in the workplace.
- Excessive absenteeism or any absence without notice.
- Unauthorized disclosure of business "secrets" or confidential information.
- Violation of personnel policies.
- Unsatisfactory performance or conduct.
- Use of company property for personal gain or outside work.
- Falsification of reporting results and/or activities related to work projects.
- Direct or indirect violation of vendor policies or conduct rules.

2.2. Business Ethics Conduct

The successful business operation and reputation of Kobby Technologies Ltd is built upon the principles of fair dealing and ethical conduct of our interns. Our reputation for integrity and excellence requires careful observance of the spirit and the letter of all applicable laws and regulations, as well as a scrupulous regard for the highest standards of conduct and personal integrity.

The continued success of Kobby Technologies Ltd is dependent upon our Clients' trust and we are dedicated to preserving that trust. Interns owe a duty to Kobby Technologies Ltd, its Clients, and its stakeholders to act in a way that will merit the continued trust and confidence of the public.
Kobby Technologies Ltd will comply with all applicable laws and regulations and expects its directors, officers, employees and interns to conduct business in accordance with the letter, spirit, and intent of all relevant laws and to refrain from any illegal, dishonest, or unethical conduct.
In general, the use of good judgment, based on high ethical principles, will guide you with respect to lines of acceptable conduct. If a situation arises where it is difficult to determine the proper course of action, the matter should be discussed openly with your manager and if necessary, with HR and/or Directors for advice and consultation. Compliance with this policy of business ethics and conduct is the responsibility of every Kobby Technologies Ltd intern. Disregarding or failing to comply with this standard of business ethics and conduct could lead to disciplinary action, up to and including possible termination of internship.

2.3. Personal Grooming

Dressing, grooming, and personal cleanliness standards contribute to the morale of all interns and affect the business image that Kobby Technologies Ltd presents to the community. During business hours or when representing Kobby Technologies Ltd, you are expected to present a clean, neat, and tasteful appearance. You should dress and groom yourself according to the requirements of your position and accepted social standards. Consult HR if you have questions as to what constitutes appropriate appearance. Where necessary, reasonable accommodation may be made to a person with a disability.

2.4. Conflict of Interest

Interns have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. This policy establishes only the framework within which Kobby Technologies Ltd wishes the business to operate. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide general direction so that interns can seek further clarification on issues related to the subject of acceptable standards of operation. An actual or potential conflict of interest occurs when an intern is in a position to influence a decision that may result in a personal gain for that intern or for a relative as a result of Kobby Technologies Ltd 's business dealings.

For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage or whose relationship with the intern is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. No "presumption of guilt" is created by the mere existence of a relationship with outside firms. However, if intern have any influence on transactions involving purchases, contracts, or leases, it is imperative that they disclose to a Director of Kobby Technologies Ltd as soon as possible the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest so that safeguards can be established to protect all parties. Personal gain may result not only in cases where an intern or relative has a significant ownership in a firm with which Kobby Technologies Ltd does business, but also when an intern or relative receives any kickback, bribe, substantial gift, or special consideration as a result of any transaction or business dealings involving Kobby Technologies Ltd.

2.5. Non-Disclosure

The protection of confidential business information and trade secrets is vital to the interests and the success of Kobby Technologies Ltd. Such confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

- Any customer data, including but not limited to phone numbers, customer names, customer locations.
- Acquisitions and mergers.
- Compensation data.
- Proprietary tools and processes.
- Computer programs and codes.
- Client lists.
- Client preferences.
- Financial information.
- Investments.
- Labor relations strategies.
- Marketing strategies.
- New materials research.
- Partnerships.
- Pending projects and proposals.
- Research and development strategies.
- Scientific data.
- Scientific formulae.

- Technological prototypes.

Interns who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of internship and legal action, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

2.6. Use of Phone & Mail Systems

Personal use of the office telephones is not permitted. To ensure effective telephone communications, interns should always use the approved greeting
("Good Morning, Kobby Technologies Ltd..." or "Good Afternoon, Kobby Technologies Ltd...," as applicable) and speak in a courteous and professional manner. Please confirm information received from the caller and hang up only after the caller has done so. Interns should refrain from sending or receiving personal mail using their business e-mail addresses, the business e-mail system is the property of Kobby Technologies Ltd. Kobby Technologies Ltd will not guarantee the privacy of the e-mail system except to the extent required by law.

2.7. Inventions & Improvements

As intern of Kobby Technologies Ltd, you have the opportunity to contribute to our future success and growth by submitting suggestions for practical work-improvement or cost-savings ideas. All interns are eligible to participate in the suggestion program. A suggestion is an idea that will benefit Kobby Technologies Ltd by solving a problem, reducing costs, improving operations or procedures, enhancing Client service, eliminating waste or spoilage, or making Kobby Technologies Ltd a better or safer place to work.

All suggestions should contain a description of the problem or condition to be improved, a detailed explanation of the solution or improvement, and the reasons why it should be implemented. Statements of problems without accompanying solutions or recommendations concerning co-workers and management are not appropriate suggestions. If you have questions or need advice about your idea, contact your manager for help. Submit suggestions to your line manager and, after review, they will be forwarded to the Directors. As soon as possible, you will be notified of the adoption or rejection of your suggestion
